Xo smiles faces on your cell phone
Notice you will be high when you hear the ring tone
Birthday gifts I know I didn't give you An another thing you told me you like the way things are going
Wake up sex and I didn't even know it
All these signs I guess I should have call it
He was leaving me baby baby this is how you are gonna play play me
As soon as we fall apart you know you are gonna miss
me hard
Even if your heart was made of stone
Even if you travel you should know
You can't let go
You ain't down even if you think so
Even though you found someone to share your world
You will be wishing I was there not some other girl
You can't let go
You think you are done with me not until I say so

Relationship status single on your facebook
Perfume... saying it was so good
In my head I... and another thing Lipstick kiss all over your...
Bragging to your friends like you ain't got a wifye

But you get mad when dude try to get on me
You got to be kidding me

Chorus
Baby baby this is how you are gonna play play me
As soon as we fall apart you know you are gonna miss
me hard
Even if you travel you should know
You can't let go
You ain't down even if you think so
Even though you found someone to share your world
You will be wishing I was there not some other girl
You can't let go
You think you are done with me not until I say so

Even if you travel you should know
You can't let go
You ain't down even if you think so
Even though you found someone to share your world
You will be wishing I was there not some other girl
You can't let go
You think you are done with me not until I say so
