Hey, yeah I've been okay
And busy
why why why you asking me?
It was just a leave Never was up to me so why,
I gonna look down for me.

But theres this awkward silence
Just can't find the words to say I'm trying to hide it but without you I'm stray Can't take this awkward silence
I'm trying to fight it
If you only knew that I'm slowly breaking

(Chorus)
I hear our song on the radio and I can't hardly breathe Because the song on the radio
keeps reminding me
of what we used to be and what we could have been
and now heres the song on the radio wasn't 'bout me

Okay
You got me I can't lie I really missed you and all the things we used to do like hanging out watching movies just chilling with you is all I needed why why why couldn't we just get it right

But there's this awkward silence
just can't find the words to say I'm trying to hide it Like without you I'm stray
Can't take this awkward silence
I'm trying to fight it
If you only knew that I'm slowly breaking

(Repeat Chorus 2x)

What if I never find a love like yours?
My end of touching down a lonely road
Only to find myself Lost and alone Cause there all that left for me is

Song on the radioooo
Because the song on the radio
now heres the song on the radio

I hear our song on the radio,
I can't hardly breathe
