Here's my cell phone?
And here's a thing to let go
And baby can't you see you're the only love I know
Oh I'm not ready for this to end
You know I love you, so I can't pretend

As soon as I get distressed, I talk to you
I'm sorry for everything and I know you are too
It took some time, but I'm still not where I had the biggest love for you but you shot it to hell

Oh the stars facing out in the stores
Had the tailgate down watching for cars
All the things that we didn't know but now that we do, we let it all go
I can't understand why we've given up
Because baby don't you know
We can't give up on love

Well come over here and baby let me, hold you
I want to feel your skin next to mine
You can give me a smile if you want to Cause baby don't you now that I won't mind

One more time

Well, I don't wanna go out, but don't wanna stay home
I don't wanna talk about it, but I don't want to be alone, no
I don't want to be alone, no
Don't make me be alone
Cause baby my heart is all gone
Baby my heart is all no no, no no, no no, no no
