If I poured my heart out, would you leave it on the floor,
Or would you pick it up and place it in your chest for me?

(Intro)

Everyone wants to live forever, or at least to be remembered forever. We mere mortals are main enough to want everyone to know our name, to hear our song, to be immortal.

(Verse 1)

I need, a penny for your thoughts and a nickel for your kiss,
Would you fight for me?
You already know what I'm about,
(But you're finna' get it right from me?),
You spray me, like a disease sneeze me,
(Alright again, freeze me, again and make it easy?),
Would yah? Could yah? Keep me as a keepsake,
Hand me down, my sound, as freeloaders and cheap-skapes,

I think very different,
Just heed me, Kali Baby, baby,
(??) and repeat me,
Keep singing my name,
And spread me in the streets,
Then graffiti me, reheat me,
Then serve me up as if I was a leftover,
Stepped over me, repeatedly,
Tech blown up now you seeing me,
Pass me on like it's your turn,
When you get me in the rotation,
Then I wanna blow up today,
Cus I know I blow up the world today,
Remember what we facin', Everyone should say the same shit, ape shit, lucky we take it,
Download it, hold it, you love Strange Music never replace it,

(Chorus)

If I poured my heart out would you leave it on the floor,
Or would you pick it up and place it in your chest for me? (So I can be immortal)

When you play my song, would you just pass it on,
And to you too love me when I'm gone? (So I can be immortal)

(Verse 2)

We taking over, we taking off, like a helicopter,
We gettin' hella props from a billboard placement,
Hollywood niggas don't know what to do with us,
And turned this shit to ruin us and my life's wasted,

If you see the path, the dawn, then pass me along, I
Just over seas and I'm leaving (now how could you sleep on 'em?),
He's destined to get you in the best thing since (??),
Except that's a sin,
Well all the breathe in his chest has ended,
Then you know the best ascended, the pended,
Oh nobody playin' with nobody,
Hes nobody? Yea well alrighty,
Imma solo shows, I'm throwin' Bolos,
And cholo holds, letting 'em know how this mo'fo goes,

See I'm an entity, playing on my imagery, my emphasis,
And I'm coming to get that, coming to get what's good for me,
Coming to shake your hand, and take your fans,
Doing it with no advance, and still make grandes,
If I'm a mainsteam and servin' out of peoples arenas,
And I was sellin' out, he'd find something to yell about,
Crazy's that way, I'm thinking I might just go,
I seem to be having an identity crisis,

(Chorus)

If I poured my heart out would you leave it on the floor,
Or would you pick it up and place it in your chest for me? (So I can be immortal)
When you play my song, would you just pass it on,
And to you too love me when I'm gone? (So I can be immortal)

(Outro)

Immortal, I made it,
And everyone can stay in my stories.
Kali, baby.
