An ankhcross painted on walls since age dawn
Signs spattered with slow time dust
A gate hidden by an embracing darkness
A torch which brings light on past secret centuries
Lord pharaoh deceived by his most faithful servant Dared to touch divine Nile princess Suffer... Embalmed alive, no one could hear you Imothep,
Consequences last eternally

Complex unraped architectutres... Secrets handled by the sun slaves Hieroglyphic mechanisms keycodes... Signs written by sun gods
Grand millennium malediction... Blessed be the will of Jackalord
Aeternum pharaohs curse... Crossing the Nile, stream of rebirth

Forbidden sanctuaries silt up till Slavera
Devoted to all covetousnesses when gold sparkles
Opening bejeweled box temptation
Beginning, walls moving Worrying endless sand falling Mighty Ra-Star retaliation

Hybrid gaolers creatures... Servants of Ra hypnotized by lies Ageless treasures profanators... Plague spreading faster than winds
De profundis scorpio dei... Abyssus abyssum invocat Aeternum pharaohs curse... Drowning in the Nile, stream of death

Battalion of justice against squadron of Horns Blasted be the book splitting the men
Mystical guardians barred the golden gates
Time for us has come to fight
