Oh your eyes speak adoration as you're gazing at me.
Your love is everlasting proven by the words you speak.
Always for me, always you'll be, always your heart
holds the key.

Verse:

Oh your arms are always open with your generosity.
Your spirit is willing and your touch is ever sweet.
Always for me, always you'll be, always your heart
holds the key.

Chorus:

Free me, free me, free me, see.

Verse:

Your embrace warms like fire and is always comforting.
Your voice vibrates desire as you whisper to me.
Always for me, always you'll be, always your heart
holds the key.

Chorus:

Free me, free me, free me, see. Always for me, always you'll be, always your heart holds the key.
Holds the key, holds the key, holds the key.
