Until our minds together believe in harmony.
The will of our endeavors remains a fallacy.

(Chorus)

For in time you will see, through our hearts one day
we'll breathe and in our being we'll find our destiny.
Awaken all the dreams you want to be.
Surround yourself with loving energy and magnetize
the thoughts of purity.

(Verse 2)

If you look beneath the surface to see, what is unseen.
And you learn from all the lessons that you face in all your dreams.
Repeat Chorus

(Verse 3)

Until we work together and recognize all need.
Humanity will suffer the laws return of greed.

Repeat Chorus
