when you're lost and you're searchin you realize you've lost somethin and your heart is breakin for the love you've been missin you gotta hold on you gotta hold on you gotta hold on when the window comes open you'll see the light in the distance and your prayers will be answered for the one you've been given you gotta hold on you gotta hold on you gotta hold on oh hold on oh hold on oh hold on oh hold on let forgiveness heal the heartbreak and you'll see yes you'll see one day one day one day someday the window will open you'll

see the light in the distance and then your prayers will be answered for the one you've been missin you gotta hold on you gotta hold on you gotta hold on oh hold on oh hold on oh hold on oh hold on oh hold on
