I know it was just a short time affair
But i didn't know that you would stay on my mind
The sweet little voice, I just can't ignore
Tellin' me that you're the one for me
So I am

Waiting till I know the right time
When you wanna give your loving away
I'm so down for you, girl you know it's true
That there ain't a thing you ask I would not do
Just thinking about how good it could be

If we get together more than just one night
Gets me so excited that i can't see
No one else inside my head but you
You know that I'll be

Repeat *

Coz to be the man that yu called for
When you need to show your love to someone
I'll do almost anything to have you here with me
That's why...

I'll do anything baby

So right, so right

So right, so right

Repeat *
