Tomorrow comes a day too fucking soon
And the world that you've created, it falls apart beneath you
Live like a king, die like a pig
Wallow in the dirt and breathe in the shit

[Chorus:]

We all burn at the sound of your voice
Crushed by the weight of your fist
We all burn at the look in your eye
And die just to live deprived

This life we live is what we've always known
And now that we've awoken we fith with no remorse
To make a peace through the death of all these lying pigs
Now all those who oppose us
Drown in the fucking blood of all of their young

[Chorus]

Lead, follow
This comes to an end
Lead, follow
This comes to an end

This is the beginning of truth
As The Tide Turns
Wallow and pain
As The Tide Turns
Of sorrow and shame

[Chorus]

As The Tide Turns
