All systems fail, and it don't mean shit to the walking dead
Got a street smart hooker and a business man with a buck to spare
So put your money where your mouth is, and yeah you get to work
So here's a lesson in life, no nothing is free, not fucking me

Bang bang, give me more, give me death
Give me some fucking disease You're giving all that you got and they take, take, take Taking all that they please No one can see me, no one sees I'm hidden down in the cracks
Hidden down in the crack

[Chorus:]
Flesh models spreading all these burning sensations
And these plastic dreams
Ruin everything, ruin everything, ruin everything [x2]

They take and they take and they take
And you give and you give what you never had oh no oh no oh no
What you never had

[Chorus]
