"Misery"

Fathered by time
And unwanted children
Left behind in a broken world
Suckling from the teets of apathy
Taught only fear and self pity

This is all we have
This is all we know

We embrace these feelings of disgust
Taught only lies so we distrust
Without all of the pain that we see
We'd never recognize the truth

Misery

Blood and tears
Rain from both the sky and ground
Let us burn, let us burn
Let us all just fade away
Tears they fall from the face of sorrow
Blood it pours from the wounds of the oppressed
Struggle and fight to awake
This is no fucking dream

Blood and tears
Rain from both the sky and ground
Let us burn, let us burn
Let us all just fade away

Misery
