

Krum Bums "Sometimes"

Visit "Sometimes" on MotoLyrics.com

How can we live
Why do we die
Rats in a cage
Try to survive
All the stupid shit
Life puts you through
It makes you insane
It makes you come unglued

Seen a crackwhore
Give birth to a baby
On the dirty broken street
It made me so sick that I didn't give a shit
So I just walked away

[Chorus:]
Sometimes I hope that the sun
Will never rise again
I hold my breath at night
And I pray
That I wake up dead

Burn down the house
City and state
Destroy all the walls
That they try to create
Never forgot all this hypocrisy
It's all too much, too much for me

Much too much for me

[Chorus]
