You can hear it when you open your eyes
(Darkness falls on everyone)
Let he who's free of sin
Cast the first stone on everyone
We all lose in the end
(So load up your guns and shoot at the wind)
In this life we know we can't win
So bite the hand that holds you down

[Chorus:]

We can't, we won't [x2]
Fight for the lives of politicians
This time we fight for change
We can't, we won't [x2]
Fight for the lies that murdered children
We are the ones that scream, No!

Addicted to your emotionless drugs
(And hooked on bleached personalities)
This is the end of an era
So burn it down and rebuild new
Children with no eyes to see
(Mothers too scared to tell the truth)
In this sickness we prevail
Its the only way to lead ourselves

[Chorus]

The pain you see is the sound
Of a generation screaming
Out for change
And we fight their dream

Dance, dance
To the sound of a world on fire
Dance, dance to the sound

This is the sound
This is the sound of change
