"The Final Option"

I've been with the incrowd been on the outside too I've seen life's many faces seen the high and the low I've been on the crossroad between heaven or hell don't need no direction don't need no one to tell It that's the Final Option I'm gonna choose it don't point the gun if you don't wanna use it This is - the Final Option - choose

I challenge the devil
for another game winning or losing it is all the same
for another game
where every bullet is having my name.
Music: Engler, Altus. Lyrics: Doerper
