Dear friend, I've been thinking about you lately
Wondering how you've been getting by
I have the feeling that you are hurting
Something's telling me inside
These words are coming down from heaven
I hope they'll make you realize
There's so much love He has for you
More than you can comprehend
He is standing at the door
He's hopin' you will let Him in
He can wipe away your tears
Give you strength to carry on Through these hard and painful days
He will help you find your way
Find your way back home
In this letter of love

Dear friend, I wish that you were with me
Words come easy eye to eye
But since the distance separates us
Let Him hold you when you cry
There's so much love He has for you
And a peace you can't describe
So that's why I'm pouring out my heart
On this page you're reading now
What I have I give to you
I can't keep it all inside
Like a river to the sea
His love is flowing out of me the love of Christ I share with you
In this letter of love

In this letter of love I'm writing to you
I pray you'll make peace with God and start anew
If you would give him your heart
Your life would change
He's reaching out
Yes, God has open arms for you...
In this letter of love

Dear friend, I've been thinking about you lately

Wondering how you've been getting by
Dear friend, for you I am praying
That you'll accept the love of Christ

Dear friend
My friend

John 3:16
