There's a raging fire that is burning in my heart
Lift your spirits higher cause we're closer than you think we are

I'll climb the highest mountain
I will fly to distant stars for you and
I will swim the deepest sea
To save your lonely heart
I'll do I'll do

And I will run to you, come to you
Rescue your soul from bleeding
Together we'll step into the light
And I will run to you, come to you
Promise to keep believing
I will be there by your side
By Your Side

Nothing's gonna stop me now
I'll make it come what may
My neverending love for you
Will guide me all along the way

I'll climb the highest mountain
I will fly to distant stars for you and
I will swim the deepest sea
To save your lonely heart
I'll do I'll do

And I will run to you, come to you
Rescue your soul from bleeding
Together we'll step into the light
And I will run to you, come to you
Promise to keep believing
I will be there by your side
By Your Side, by Your Side

And I will run to you, come to you
Rescue your soul from bleeding
Together we'll step into the light
And I will run to you, come to you

Promise to keep believing
I will be there by your side
