You've given so much
All that your are
You lifted me up
But one thing's been certain
You helped me
In every way
Now I want to give right back to you

Let me be your friend
When you're in trouble
And even when
There's nothing wrong
You can count on me
No matter what's going on
I'll be there for you
Until the very end

When I am down
You always remind me
You'll be right here
So please let me do
The same for you
When you're in need
And let me wipe your fear all away

Let me your be friend
When you're in trouble
And even when
there's nothing wrong
You can count on me
No matter what's going on
I'll be there for you
Until the very end

And I know
that you're from heaven
And I know
You won't let me down
All I want is to be there
the same to you

Let me be your friend
When you're in trouble
And even when
there's nothing wrong
You can count on me
No matter what's going on
I'll be there for you
Until the very end
