swallowing this hurt making it lie down i'm my strongest ally, living life as i know how I'm carrying the weight of the world that sold me out I'm running with my eyes closed hoping you don't see this doubt I'm lost for words I'm at a loss to tell you what i need I know there's something more God, help me to believe

(Chorus)

And all this time I thought the fight, the fight was only mine I need to let you rescue me I'm taking fire I'm feeling tired, I'm tired of this fight I need to let you rescue me

I let it go to breathe I can't take it anymore i refuse to wake up one more time bleeding on the floor I won't let myself hold back I'll surrender what's inside you've become my healing tourniquet so I can feel alive I feel so exposed I am afraid I'm afraid to lose total control with nothing left to hold you reach for me and wouldn't let me go

(Chorus 2x)

uh oh oh uh oh oh uh oh oh (song fading away)
