...Don't let them sell you a cage. Don't bleed for blood
That I've bled. I've thrown no kid to the wolves. So make Your peace. The actor is not who he claimed. Carry on.
They've painted gold this cage and the actor has Betrayed, and the actor has betrayed, yet I repeat, "So Please, step away from the ocean... You'll never Understand, you'll never understand." Carry on. White
Flag. White flag. White flag. White flag. White flag.
White flag. Victory is such a lonely word. Victory is Such a lonely word. Victory is such a lonely word.
Victory is such a lonely word. And I built my father's House, I built my father's house, I built my father's House, and I built my father's house, but I refuse to Breathe the breath of the failure. Resurrect and be Blessed by the dead. Don't dig up old bones.
