Here's to the future
Forget about your past
Here's to the man who's life is just a gas
Heres to your sorrow
Oh I dread to think
Here's to the lost to have found anything

Chorus

Oh as it all begins to fade
I still remain I still remain

Here's to the father who drowned in a glass

Here's to the teacher who said I wouldn't last Here's to the living and heres to the dead and Here's to the man who's out there making ends.

Chorus

Remain
