Here I stand, head on shoulders, feet not on the ground
High above lotus flowers falling all around
What is this? that I feel? I've opened up the door
Now all those things I thought important mean nothing anymore

Oh, a land that was forgotten
Oh, another life to live

I walked upon the Causal Ocean lying in my bed
I talked with Kings and Holy sages, many books I read Well if it's just a taste of heaven that you're looking for All those things you thought important mean nothing
anymore

Oh, a land that was forgotten
Oh, another life to live
Well, another life to live
Oh, a land that was forgotten
Oh, another life to live
Another life to live
Another life to live
