"Holy River"

All my friends are down by the river
Washing their sins away
Oh, Gima's risen, goddess of visions
I said, golden, golden, take me down today
Come along and ride holy river
We'll be going down today
Come alive and love holy river
Watch me float away

Someone's singing, twilight's forgiven
And there's temples banging bowls
Tonight they'll sing a song to the river
We're golden, golden, dance the dance today

Come along and love holy river
We'll be going down today
Come alive and love holy river
Watch me float away

Where the fishes a-splish and splatter
Where the time of day don't matter
You know the (????)
I've got something you can do
Let the feeling wash over you, yeah!

Well if we go down together
We could float away forever
On a dream, on a dream... aggh, yeah yeah yeah!!

Come along and love holy river
We'll be going down today
Come alive and love holy river
Watch me float away

Come and ride, come and ride
Come and ride, come and ride

Oh, I've got the vision, got lots of visions
Yeah, Oh, everything's gonna be okay
