You can hypnotize me with a glance
You're the thief to steal away my heart
I wish I could trust you but your crooked smile
Dances on a serpent for your lovers eyes

Be merciful to me, cause I'm so long waiting
Be merciful to me, cause you are all I know

You were there before I knew your name
You could hear me calling out in pain
I wish I could trust you but your crooked smile
Dances on a serpent for your lovers eyes

Be merciful to me, cause I'm so long waiting
Be merciful to me, cause you are all I know

A Oh, Oh, Oh
A Oh, Oh, Oh
