If you believe the western sun is falling down on everyone
If you're breaking free and the morning's come
If you would know your time has come
If you believe the western sun is falling down on
everyone
And you're feeling burnt and I'll try to run
And you're feeling burnt your time has come You're feeling all that energy and I feel the power growing
You're feeling all that energy and I feel the power
growing

If you believe the western sun is falling down on
everyone
If you're breaking free and the morning's come
If you believe the western sun is falling down on
everyone
And you're feeling burnt and I'll try to run
And you're feeling burnt your time has come
You're feeling all that energy and I feel the power
growing
You're feeling all that energy and I feel the power
growing
