Shower your love on me
Don't make it so hard to cry
Oh shower your love on me
You don't need a reason why

'Cause I'm not even half the way there
Oh I'm just too stupid to care
So help me now
When I've fallen through

There are scenes in my open mind
Confusion and flashing lights
Oh shower your love on me
'Cause nothing here feels right

Oh I'm, well I'm not even half the way there
Oh I'm just too stupid to care
So help me now
Well I've done all I can do
Shower your love on me

Oh I can't wait, I'm losing faith
Like we might just explode
Oh comfort me with a melody
Show me that I'm gonna know the answer
Show me that I'm gonna know

Shower your love on me
Don't make it so hard to cry
Oh shower your love on me
You don't need a reason why

And don't make it so hard to cry
Oh shower your love on me
Shower your love on me

Shower your love on me
Shower your love on me, oh
