Yesterday my rose opened up and said
Said that life is cruel and I'm no longer scared

I believe in power of my thorn
Not afraid of humans anymore
I believe in power of my thorn
Not afraid of humans anymore

Yesterday my world of pain suddenly collapsed
I looked straight into the sun and smiled

I will never die
Roses, roses at my door
Not afraid of humans anymore
Roses, roses at my door
Not afraid of humans anymore

I believe in power of my thorn
Not afraid of humans anymore
