Say it once, say it twice, or a million times
Say you love me, say you need me, 'till the end of time
Say those three little words I can't wait to hear
Say that you love me don't waste any time
Say it once, say it twice, or a million times
With the kiss from your lips, even with a smile
With the touch of your hands, with a warm embrace
Say that you love me in every way

When we're all alone, I want to hold you close
Look in to your eyes and hear those three little words
Coming from you heart, from deep inside your soul
So you can prove to me that you won't let me go

I'll light the candle lights, and lay you on the floor
And kiss your body slowly from your head to your toes
As I can feel you shake and every breath you take
When I can vaguely hear every word as you say,

"Hold me Touch me 'ccause this just feels so right
Kiss me love me, just love me through the night"

Say it once, say it twice, or a million times
Say you love, say you need me, 'till the end of time
Say those three little words' I can't wait to hear
Say that you love me, don't waste any time

Say it once, say it twice, or a million times
With the kiss from your lips, even with a smile
With the touch of your hands, with a warm embrace
Say that you love me in every way

As we are making love, I hold your body tight Ain't looking at the clock, don't want to have sense of time
'Cause when I'm close to you, that's all I want to do

For I would be so lost if I didn't have you

Don't matter whose around, don't matter where the place
I just want to tell you that I love you always

You know you hold my heart, you know you hold the key
My door is open for you for always,

Hold me touch me 'cause this just feels so right
(this just feels so right)
Kiss me love me just love me through the night

Say it once, say it twice, or a million times
Say you love me, say you need me, 'till the end of time
Say those three little words, I can't wait to hear
Say that you love me, don't waste any time

Say it once, say it twice, or a million times
With the kiss from your lips, even with a smile
With the touch of your hands, with the warm embrace
Say the you love me in every way

Just say those three little words
(Just say)
The words I've been wanting to hear
(the words, babe)
Now don't waste any time
(mmm-hmmm)
Say it once. Say it twice. Say it a million times.

Say it once, say it twice, or a million times
Say you love me, say you need, 'till the end of time
Say those three little words I can't wait to hear
Say that you love me, don't waste any time

Say it once, say it twice, or a million times
(Say you love me)
With the kiss from your lips, even with a smile
(Oh, say you need me, yeah, yeah)
With a touch of your hands, with a warm embrace
Say that you love me in every way
(yeah)
