Last Friday night I was due out on a date, but unfortunately I got home really late.

I didn't have time for a bath or a shower, there's only one thing that could save us.

It's just like a shower but its over the sink, the only thing that get washed is shiny and pink. If there's a possibility of fellatio you have to make sure that your knob doesnt smell like Quavers, Quavers.

A Gentleman's wash, a Gentleman's wash, if you think there's half a chance your cock might get a nosh. Pull your pants to one side, wash the member they hide, and that's a little Gentleman's wash.

The other weekend I was out on the piss, when this girl who was wankered came and gave me a kiss.

She said "I bet you got a big knob, coz you've got big hands, just like Peter Shilton".

But I'd come straight from footie and I thought my cock must stink, so I rushed to the bogs and flopped it out in the sink. I thought if I'm gonna get sucked off, its only good manners to make sure that my knob doesn't smell like stilton, stilton.
