What you call life
Is never ending dying
You fear death
But it's your redemption

You sold yourself
To a system based on greed
Your not my friend
I want to see you bleed... now

So I decide to hate you

Your world's a grave
Your life means death
But I want to live
I still believe

If you ever believed
In life then you have stopped
If you ever had dreams
Seems like you gave'em up... now

So I decide to hate you

Can't take back my hate decision
Can't take it back, won't take it back

Your suburban fascism
Makes me wanna smash your face
I feel my head explode
Why are you so fucking stupid?
