Your world of hate makes suffering
You're at war and never giving in
No light in this concrete society
I change sides, from now on live on trees
Senseless acts of vandalism
Digging holes in highways
I set fire on your suburb mall
And smash the windows of the banks that steal our lives

You can never take back what you've done to me
Each life lived in vain will rain down on you
And science moves forward
So much knowledge we've got
But it's still
Tears for tears, blood for blood

I'm sick and tired of obeying you
The truth you tell has never been true
Lady liberty is raped and killed
But your lust for blood can't be fulfilled
Release the tigers from the local zoo
I rob a bank and burn your money
Your economy grew me your enemy
Every empire bears it's own fall

You can never take back what you've done to me
Each life lived in vain will rain down on you
And science moves forward
So much knowledge we've got
But it's still
Tears for tears, blood for fucking blood
