Dawn breaks in Atlantic Jet Stream
They're laughin cuz it's so hard to see
I'm waiting
Waiting on a long, long year

We've got a little plan in this dream
You're about to enter something obscene
I'm waiting
Waiting on a long, long year

Who could it be
Leading the scheme with his horrible eye?
Don't touch within, follow the kid, and allow the surprise

I was the Rat

Dawn screams in a billion degrees
My mama can't describe what she's seen
I'm waiting
Waiting on a long, long year

I died eleven nights in a row
God's laughing, he ain't stoppin the show
I'm waiting
Waiting on a long, long year

Who could it be
Leading the scheme with his horrible eye?
Don't touch within, follow the kid, and allow the surprise

I was the Rat
You are the rat
