"Opportunity Three"

A boy with a stronger emotion, has nothing on me i've got this one Going round round round this sensation i found in my soul Love as it touches perfection, a ballance of truth and correction
Going round round round this sensation i found again
Station to station, this sensation, a celebration
I won
Speculation reassures your opinion to presume you sre the answer division Going round round round this sensation i found in my
soul
This hated body's persuasion, on any level of the organisation
Going round round round this sensation i found again
Ooh, ooh, ooh,
Station to station, this sensation, a celebration
I won
A stranger in awe of the chaos in reality he never could save us
Going round round round this sensation i found again
Again, again, again, again this sensation
I fucking won
