Makeover (It's your boy Kurt Carr reminding you, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature)
Makeover (old things are passed away, and everything's become new)
A spiritual makeover, and it was extreme
Oh, oh, extreme (Come on, sing it for me Nikitta)
I've heard and said that everything in life
Everything must change
Nothing stays the same, and I thank God every day.
This applies to me.
You see my momma taught me to live God's way
But I decided to do it my way
But I messed up my life, and drifted to an ugly place
But I thank God that I came to myself
