Standing on the edge of my life
Trying hard to come back again
Standing on the edge of my life
With you as my wind

And I've been trying not to go back in time
Trying not to go where I've been
Cause I'm standing on the edge of my life
And you are my wind oh no

So come and come and blow me away
Come and be the light of my day
Girl I wanna ask you to stay
Come blow me away

Welcome to the best of my world
Welcome to the rest of my life
Welcome to the best of my world
With you as my wife
And I've been dying just to get in your heart
I promise not to tear it apart
Cause I'm standing on the edge of my life
And you are my wind oh no

For so long you were so strong
I was so wrong you blew me away

Standing on the edge of my life
Trying hard to come back again
I'm standing on the edge of my life
With you as my wind

So come and come and blow me away
Come and be the light of my day
Girl you know I want you to stay
Come blow me away oh no
Blow me away
