She's come undun, she didn't know what's she was headed for
And when she found what she was headed for, it was too late She's come undun, she found a mountain that was far too high
And she found out she couldn't fly and it was too late
Now it's too late, she's gone too far, she's lost the sun

She's come undun, she wanted the truth but all she got was lies
Came the time to realize that it was too late She's come undun, she didn't know what's she was
headed for
And when she found what she was headed for, it was
too late
Now it's too late, she's gone too far, she's lost the sun

She's come undun, she's come undun

Too many mountains and not enough stairs to climb Too many churches and not enough truth to find Too many people and not enough eyes to see Too many lives to live and not enough time

She's come undun, she didn't know what's she was
headed for
And when she found what she was headed for, it was
too late
She's come undun, she wanted the truth but all she got
was lies
Came the time to realize that it was too late
Now it's too late, she's gone too far, she's lost the sun

She's come undun, she's come undun
She's come undun, she wanted the truth but all she got
was lies
Came the time to realize that it was too late
She's come undun, she's come undun
