Mrs. Cruver

Mrs. Cruver and I were together for a while, but that is over now.

Times are changing, Iâ€™m a scum.

Guess I ainâ€™t the only one you will ever see around, walking roadless in this town.

My mind recalls upon a time - we were stupid, we were blind.

In the sunshine you looked so fine.

Itâ€™s only 19 floors to go. Sheâ€™s on the top and out of control.

Itâ€™s only 19 floors to go. Sheâ€™s on the top, and Iâ€™m on parole.

Mrs. Cruver and I will be together in the sky, but for now Iâ€™ll let it lay.

Iâ€™m getting tuned out day by day. Times have changed, but not me.

Iâ€™m the same Iâ€™ll always be. Get my feet back on the ground -

Moving to this groovy sound.

Itâ€™s only 19 floors to go...

Iâ€™m climbing the stairs, but sheâ€™s climbing everywhere.

I think itâ€™s time for me to leave and see what I can achieve.

I do for a living what I can. Iâ€™m what you call a self-made man.

Why canâ€™t I take just what I find. Take a look at that shoeshine!

Itâ€™s only 19 floors to go...
