Verse 1

Don't mind if you treat me bad again, I don't care anymore
Life's too short to make trouble out of small things
It is better this way, I'm sort of laid back today Close my ears when words come flying out, I've heard them all before
With just a lot of hope flushing down the drain, it is better this way
I am going away

Chorus

I tried and then some more
Instead of dragging the both of us down
Divide separate ways
It's never easy this way, it's never easy this way

Verse 2

My palms are sweating, I'm barely aware, what I'm turning down
This awful life that is what I've been told think it's better this way
I will regret it one day

Chorus

I tried and then some more
Instead of dragging the both of us down
Divide separate ways
It's never easy this way, it's never easy this way

Verse 3

Talk to me, throw the ball back
I've been here before there is no turning back Talk to me just tell it like it is Just two afraid souls, going at each other, at each other We're at the crossroad going separate ways, time to say it as it is
And if we bump into each other one day we'll be better then
Maybe we can start all over again
Yeahhh

Chorus

I tried and then some more

Instead of dragging the both of us down

Divide separate ways

It's never easy this way, its never easy this way

I tried and then some more

Instead of dragging the both of us down

Divide separate ways

It's never easy this way, it's never easy this way
