

Kutless "Again"

Visit "Again" on MotoLyrics.com

Awakened from a dream again to a sunrise of your own How could I expect any more from the one who is so pure
Yet u gave up your life and your still giving more
This must imply that

Love again, again, again
I don't deserve this love you gave
Love again, again, again
I don't deserve this love you gave to me

A fountain flows with gifts from you, that I do nothing for
You cover me with your love though I nailed you to a cross
I don't understand but I thank you the same
This must imply that

Love again, again, again
I don't deserve this love you gave
Love again, again, again
I don't deserve this love you gave to me

Go, go, go

Love again, again, again
I don't deserve this love you gave
Love again, again, again
I don't deserve this love you gave to me
