Never thought I'd fall in love again
To find the pieces of the puzzle
Life cannot begin
The search begins with knowing
I need you
Could not imagine in my dreams
That you need me too
Someone to love
All my dreams have come true
Now that I've found you
Someone to love
Alone I feel no more
Since you unlocked the door to my heart
There was an empty void inside my heart
I tried to fill the space with anything
But left it in the dark
Then a blessing came in the form of you
Now I know that God has smiled on me too
Someone to love
All my dreams have come true
Now that I've found you
Someone to love
Alone I feel no more
Since you unlocked the door to my heart
I didn't know when it would come
All I know is that I wanted someone
To take me far away from my loneliness
So I thank you, I thank you coming
Into my life
Someone to love
All my dreams have come true
Now that I've found you
Someone to love
Alone I feel no more
Since you unlocked the door to my heart
