Don't wait, don't hesitate
Swing away for the fences
One time, one borderline
Bring down your defenses
Come near and I will perservere
Only as strong as a man should be
Love is blind, and sure hard to find
But if it's all too much to see

Don't look, baby, close your eyes
Trust your heart, lay it on the line
Roll with the flow, just let it all go
Reach out and let your lips kiss mine

The first line rehearsed a thousand times
Never comes out perfect
Same as this, just a simple kiss
So much at stake, but it's worth it
I know it's not a simple road
Just take it one curve at a time
Full speed driving carelessly
You couldn't wreck it darlin' if you tried

Don't look, baby, close your eyes
Trust your heart, lay it on the line
Roll with the flow, just let it all go
Reach out and let your lips kiss mine

And don't look, baby, everything will be alright

Don't think, don't hesitate
Jump in at the deep end
Each time your eyes meet with mine
Can't you tell how I weaken
Love is blind, and sure hard to find
But I've been thinking 'bout it nine long days
You'll see if you believe in me
You don't have to look to find your way

Don't look, baby, close your eyes
Trust your heart, lay it on the line
Roll with the flow, just let it all go

Reach out and let your lips kiss mine

And don't look, baby, everything will be alright
