She's so reckless
She's so dangerous
She'll break your heart
And leave it in the wreckage

If you dont wanna be one of her casualties
Be careful
The devil's on TV

On the outside
She's so beautiful
Intoxicating, delicate and sweet
No man has ever told her no

If you dont wanna be one of her catastrophies
Be careful
Please be careful
The Devil's on TV

(Oooh)
You'll give her everything you love
But it's never enough

On the inside
There is evil
She'll tell you what you wanna hear
But you better not believe it

If you dont wanna be one of her tragedies
Be careful
Be careful
The Devil's on TV
