Her hip sway's, there lips rumour
I saw u turn ur back and held his hand

I tell u it's easier to forget then to get.
But it tears that feeling of what I wanted

It breaks my heart to let u go
But it hurts to stay like this
It's shit cause u get my attention just like a fire
Then it all comes back

I tell u it's easier to forget then to get.
But it tears that feeling of what I wanted and what I needed

I was gonna give my heart to u but now it's torn in two
With me puzzled and confused
I guess I'm just hardly worth ur time
So now I guess we'll go back as how we started from

I'd give u back ur promise and take ur breath away
But I'm trying to drift away

Now when I see you it stings like hell Because we could hav had something that will never happen

I tell u it's easier to forget then to get.
But it tears that feeling of what I needed

I'm not sure if this is anger or jealousy
