I wanted to write a song called 'Cosmic'
I wanted to get a view of the earth
I wanted to be a lonesome cowboy
I wanted to love you till it hurt

I wanted the right to misbehave
To say she ain't my crave

I put these things aside for years
'Til laughter took the place of tears
It's like I was asleep yet now I'm here
I'm here

I wanted to take your place just sometimes
To know the things you know and why you did the things you do
To say 'no' one time and believe it
Oh I wanted so much but only needed you

Wasn't it just my choice to make?
The bed in which I lay
I put these things aside for years
'Til laughter took the place of tears
It's like I was asleep yet now I'm here
I'm here

I wanted to be able to talk without the interruption
I wanted to sing exotic words
I wanted to find a way to put the end to all of my destruction
I wanted to re-know what I was worth

But wasn't it just my choice to make?
The bed in which I lay

I put these things aside for years
'Til laughter took the place of tears
It's like I was asleep yet now I'm here
I'm here
I'm here (it's cosmic)
