You take a piece of me everytime you leave
And never realize that way I feel about you
My tongue gets tied and my mouth gets dry
I wanna tell you but I don't know how to

So every night I dream, yeah
Hope and pray and believe
That someday you and I
We'll live in ecstasy, the world for you and me

One love, one life
Everything would be alright if I was your lover
One soul, one mind
Everything would be so right if I was your lover

Another day goes by and it blows my mind
If I didn't know that you were meant for me
Under the moonlit night, when the time is right
You hold me in your arms from then on to infinity

And every night I dream, yeah
Hope and pray and believe
So happy that you're mine
We'll live in ecstasy, the world for you and me

One love, one life
Everything would be alright if I was your lover
One soul, one mind
Everything would be so right if I was your lover

One love, one life
Everything would be alright if I was your lover
One soul, one mind
Everything would be so right if I was your lover

If I was your lover
I'd hold you in my arms from dusk till dawn
If I was your lover
One night would last all eternity if we were together

And every night I'll dream
Hope and pray and believe, yeah

So happy 'cause you're mine
We'll live in ecstasy, the world for you and me

One love, one life
Everything would be alright if I was your lover
One soul, one mind
Everything would be so right if I was your lover

One love, one life
Everything would be alright if I was your lover
One soul, one mind
Everything would be so right if I was your lover
