Me a monkey man,
Me want banana.

I, I, I, I, I, I (banana baby) huggin' up the big monkey man

I never saw you,
I only heard of you,
Huggin' up the big monkey man.

He's no lie, He's no lie
Huggin up the big money man
It's no lie, It's no lie
Huggin up the big money man

Now I know that, now I understand
Huggin up the big the big monkey man

I was on my way to Banbury Cross,
When I saw a monkey upon a white horse
With rings on his fingers and bells on his toes
He sings a little song, wherever he goes
He's a monkey, He's a monkey
He's a really really really really big monkey man.
