You've wet my appetite;

I want the taste of you tonight.

I've gotta look out for me,

Like a cat whose got the cream.

Prrrr-rrrr-rrr!

I take you for a gambling man...

I'll place my bets as high as I can.

Maybe you're the one who can realize my dream.

Shall we see?

Meet me in the bedroom

At quarter-past eleven...

Say the lucky words I'm looking for,

And we'll be locking up the door.

Baby, if you wanna be in my world,

You've gotta know the password (password)

To make it right (to make it right).

Tell me your thinking hard,

I don't want this to fall apart...

I've gotta feeling that we could just make a team.

I'm careful with my heart,

I'm a fussy girl and love's an art.

Tell me that your hiding something up your sleeve,

Please...

Meet me in the bedroom,

At quarter-past eleven.

Say the lucky words I'm looking for,

And we'll be locking up the door.
Baby, if you wanna be in my world,

You've gotta know the password (password)

To make it right (to make it right)
Baby, if you wanna be in my world,

You've gotta know the password (password)

I think you might (i think you might)
Tell me the password baby, mmmm...
Please tell me baby,

It's not the hand you've got,

But how you play it...

Mmmm... yeah, what's the password?
(Baby, baby) Baby, what's the password [x4] Baby, if you wanna be in my world (ooh baby what's the password),

You've gotta know the password (password) (ah baby what's the password)

To make it right (to make it right) (oh baby what's the password)
Baby, if you wanna be in my world (baby what's the password).

You've gotta know the password (password) (oh what's the password, ahhh
Password)

To make you might (i think you might) (ooh what's the password)
Tell me, tell me!

Ooh, hmm-ha!
