I would like to say that I, never ment to make you cry.
I think about you every day, no matter what your
friends
might say. Everybody knows my name, even though I'm still the same. I just would like to say that I, I never ever ment to make you cry.

I would like to know why there are clouds in the sky, every time I fall in love. And I would like to know why I'm sitting here on my own. I would like to know why when I find a nice guy, someone I can lean upon. I mess it all up, and then I wonder why I'm all alone.

Tell me if you think that I am talking way too much.
Tell me if you'd like to stay in touch.

I would like to say that I, never ment to make you cry.
I think about you every day, no matter what your
friends
might say. Everybody knows my name, even though I'm still the same. I just would like to say that I, I never ever ment to make you cry.

Sitting on the sofa, letting laugh go by thinking about the early days. Think about that time when I heard you win
my grace away. All I wanna do is look around for you, yeah, drive until the break of dawn. Track you down, cold and ill, bleed until your coming home.

Tell me if you think that I have been a bit too much.
Tell me if you'd like to stay in touch.

I would like to say that I, never ment to make you cry.
I think about you every day, no matter what your
friends
might say. Everybody knows my name, even though I'm still the same. I just would like to say that I, I never ever ment to make you cry, cry, cry.

I didn't mean to be so cruel, I didn't mean to let you down. So sorry for the rain on your complain and all the pain, you must have gained, because of me.

I would like to say that I, never ment to make you cry.
I think about you every day, no matter what your
friends
might say. Everybody knows my name, even though I'm still the same. I just would like to say that I, I never ever ment to make you cry.
