She said she want love in the morning
(Love in the morning)
Thatâ€™s what she said, that what she said
She said she want love in the evening
(Love in the evening)
Thatâ€™s what she said
(What she said)

See the love that I'm feeling, it sure feels fine
And the love that I'm giving is pure and divine
Youâ€™re an example of perfection little angel of mine
What joy it brings to see you smile

And girl, I never forsake never do you no harm Completion is what I'm feeling when hold you in my arms Iâ€™m captivated by your essence and all I want it to be
Is me loving you and you loving me

She said she want love in the morning
(Love in the morning)
Thatâ€™s what she said, that what she said
She said she want love in the evening
(Love in the evening)
Thatâ€™s what she said
(What she said)

And from the second I saw you, I was loving you much
And I knew we had something going when I smiled and you blushed
And on our first night out I was tempted to touch
But I told myself no need to rush

Just give it time for our hearts will grow fonder
And then our love will be stronger
She asked me, am I leaving? I said, "Never Iâ€™ll be loving you forever"

She said she want love in the morning
(Love in the morning)
Thatâ€™s what she said, that what she said

She said she want love in the evening
(Love in the evening)
That's what she said
(What she said)

And just when I was down on my luck
You walked into my life and girl, you showed me what true love means
Yes, you did, yes, you did and now I
And what a feeling I'm feeling tonight I'm so proud to say that I'm your king and you're my queen

Now I know, now I know
That there will be no more lonely nights
No more cloudy days
And anytime you cry, I'll kiss your tears away Never leave you, never will I stray, now you're my lady

She said she want love in the morning
(Love in the morning)
That's what she said, that what she said
She said she want love in the evening
(Love in the evening)
That's what she said
(What she said)

See the love that I'm feeling, it sure feels fine
And the love that I'm giving is pure and divine
You're an example of perfection little angel of mine
