[Ville moaning something]
Can't see the point in keeping silence
What's the use in bringing it down
As all things broken just keep coming up,
Misplaced just turning my inside out

CHROUS:

Your image is untrue
It's running you from outside
Always there - Oh that ain't your smile
Once taken it into your heart
Now place it for your face
- Oh I know you'll never be the same

In your better-off state
To realize
O'right
Raised up to this frustration
Always thought it's going around
All mixed up
With crimes'n'stuff - situations
Or is there a way out
Is there a way out?

CHROUS:

Your image is untrue
It's running you from outside
Always there - Oh that ain't your smile
Once taken it into your heart
Now place it for your face
- Oh I know you'll never be the same

In your better-off state
To realize
O'right
Was raised up to this
Still the place is in there
How come you're so amazed?
Not really ? it wasn't all just a ball game
It was somewhere else
Couldn't picture you there

I'll never crawl away
'Cause I can't
Waving know what the pressure is?
You'll never get to know that.
You'll never get to know that.
Waving know what the pressure is?

In your better-off state
To realize
O'right

CHROUS:
Your image is untrue
It's running you from outside
Always there - Oh that ain't your smile
Once taken it into your heart
Now place it for your face
- Oh I know you'll never be the same

Waving know what the pressure is?
You'll never get to know that.

It was somewhere else
It was somewhere else
It was somewhere else
